What:

Please join author T. Elizabeth Renich as she describes how her historical research took her from California to Virginia to Alaska and lots of places in between. In The Shadowcreek Chronicles, Ms. Renich weaves her fictional characters with actual events and mingles them with real people of the Civil War era. She hopes to inspire another generation to take an interest in our country's heritage and to illustrate that history isn't boring!

Cost: $5 Lecture General Admission; Museum Members FREE
